

Mr. Robinson is in his eighth year as an administrator at CVHS. Before becoming Associate Principal he was a grade-level principal. Prior to joining the administrative team at Cumberland Valley High School, he taught seventh grade at Eagle View for five years primarily as a social studies teacher but also as a reading and math instructor. Previous to that he taught two years in Harrisburg City Schools and began his career in Prince George's County, MD.

Finishing his Superintendent's Letter of Eligibility Program through Shippensburg University was the end of an education journey that began at Westtown Friends in West Chester (diploma in 1996) followed by Susquehanna University (BS of finance in 2000) and then by a Master's in Education from McDaniel College (MS in 2004) Westminster, MD. As a teacher at Cumberland Valley he completed his Principal's Certification (2011) at Shippensburg.

Mr. Robinson is married to Mrs. Robinson, a 2nd grade teacher and member of the Wolf Pack at Winding Creek Elementary, and is blessed with two amazing daughters: Addison (10 1/2) and Ashley (7 1/2). Bell, the hyper puppy and Libby, the "old" three year old, round out the Robinson household. When not at work, Mr. Robinson enjoys working out with Mr. Wilson, watching Philly sports teams, and spending as much time as possible with his family.
